OLOA statue gets spruced up for the big feast

Members of Our Lady of Angels Catholic Association carry the statue for the very first time using the new poles and the new base on Monday, 8/26/19. The new system allows for two people in front and two people in back on each of the two poles for a total of eight people carrying, and also allows the sides of the base to be unobstructed, unlike the old system. First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Judge Murray Gurfein, Pentagon Papers case, June 17, 1971:

"The security of the Nation is not at the ramparts alone. Security also lies in the value of our free institutions. A cantankerous press, an obstinate press, a ubiquitous press must be suffered by those in authority in order to preserve the even greater values of freedom of expression and the right of the people to know."

From The Editor

WEST ISLAND —
A day late and many dollars short.

School started this week. YIKES! Summer is NOT gone. It's NOT. No....no...no.

Ge. It feels like summer just got here. It didn't help that it was so hot most days that it was hard to do anything outside.

Heavy sigh.

Not quite ready to pull out the snow shovel. It would be nice to get a few more beach days in, huh?

The OLOA feast is this weekend. That's a sure sign that summer is over for the student group anyway.

Speaking of students...

It is, of course, customary for newspapers to run pictures of the students going to school on the first day. We did that. But we also caught wind of a group of parents who were so excited that their young charges were going back to school they decided to celebrate. "It's the most wonderful time...." See page 7 for a picture of the mimosa parents....and the kids, too, yup, the kids.

Now, back to the feast (see page 3). This is your only chance to get the best malassadas on planet EARTH. Yes, planet EARTH. All the food at our Biggest Little Feast is usually worthy of some big bragging, with lots of Portuguese favorites and American fare to choose from. And don't forget the Madeira wine, too.

The weather looks like it's going to be nice and cool for the whole weekend. So...no excuses.

I guess I'll end on the sad note this week.

It's just heartbreaking that Fairhaven's Laurie Sylvia died from EEE. We go on and on about covering up, using DEET, spraying, staying inside, or whatever. But, I just don't see how anyone can defend herself from a nuisance of a flying insect. If we had a surefire way of avoiding those little buggers, we'd do it.

My heart breaks for the family.

There's not much to say to them, really. It's just so random, so unfair. Our little town took a hit, too, with her death.

Enjoy each little moment, people. You simply cannot know how many you have left.

Until next week then...see ya,

Fairhaven resident dies from EEE

By Beth David
Editor

A Fairhaven woman was the fourth person in Massachusetts to contract Eastern Equine Encephalitis, and is the first to die from the disease this year. Laurie Sylvia, a Sciticut Neck resident, died on Sunday, 8/25, after battling the virus for a couple of weeks. She was a real estate agent who worked at Pelletier Realty.

The first public acknowledgement of the Fairhaven EEE case and her identity came from a Facebook post from the Teamsters Local 59 on Saturday.

"It pains us to inform you that Laurie Sylvia, the wife of Teamsters Local 59 President Robert Sylvia, Jr has been stricken with the EEE Virus," reads the post. "For the last several days we were hopeful that with the best possible care from the Doctors and Staff at Tufts Medical Center in Boston, she would be able to recover. We have just learned that this will not be the case. Laurie's condition has deteriorated and regrettably the Family is now preparing for the worst."

The town of Fairhaven Board of Health issued a press release on Monday acknowledging the case had been confirmed by the Mass. Department of Public Health.

On Tuesday, the Selectboard issued a statement: "It is with great regret that we inform you that this latest case of EEE resulted in the death of a Fairhaven Resident, Laurie Sylvia. The Town of Fairhaven sends its sincere condolences to the friends and family of Mrs. Sylvia during this difficult period," said Town Administrator, Mark Rees.

Ms. Sylvia's obituary describes her as a beach lover with a "little piece of heaven" on Sandy Beach.

"Laurie would approach everyone with a smile, kindness and laughter," reads the obituary. "She had a beautiful soul that was felt by everyone she came across. If you had the pleasure to meet her, you were instantly a friend and had a piece of her heart. If Laurie was in the room, you were sure to be laughing. She was the life of the party and meant everything to everyone. She loved her children deeply and her greatest joy was being Mimi to her grandchildren.

Heaven has gained the most selfless, beautiful, genuine human being."

Her daughter, Jen Sylvia posted on Facebook that Laurie "brought light and joy to everyone she came across."

"She knew how to have fun and taught me how important it was to love with all you've got and live life to the fullest," wrote Jen the day of her mother's death. "Mum, I hope you find the beach in heaven. I'll meet you there one day."

The rare disease is transmitted to humans by infected mosquitoes. Approximately one-third of those afflicted died from the disease. The rest often suffer permanently from neurological impairments.

Hoarder Workshop

The Fairhaven Health Department, and the New Bedford Fresh Start program are co-sponsoring a hoarding remediation program known as Buried in Treasures. This program is roughly 20 weeks and is designed for individuals who struggle with hoarding disorder and/or individuals who are interested in learning how to support someone they know who struggles with hoarding disorder, such as spouses, children, family members, care givers, etc.

Please keep in mind that those who join must commit to the entire length of the program. While we understand 20 weeks sounds like a long time, the program does fly by and members of the group form a bond which helps to support each other during the program.

They've gone BAAACCKKKK.....

Most schools in the area started classes this week. In Fairhaven, grades 1 to 12 started on Tuesday, 8/27. Kindergarten and preK were scheduled to start on Thursday, 8/29. It is, of course customary to show a picture of the kids starting school, but there's more to starting school than starting school. A group of parents got together at a West Island home to celebrate the return of classes by enjoying some mimosas on the deck and their own good company, and the Neighb News decided it was just as fitting to commemorate their response as the children's. Schooner Fest 35th Annual Gloucester Schooner Festival, Fri., 8/30-Sun., 9/1. The schooners return to Gloucester in late summer as we celebrate the 35th Annual Gloucester Schooner Festival. Maritime Gloucester will welcome more than 20 schooners to its recently rebuilt Harriet Webster Pier. The weekend offers a wide range of sights and sounds. Taking place in the harbor and nearby waters of America's oldest seaport, the Gloucester Schooner Festival honors the major role the fishing schooner — invented here in 1713 — has played in the heritage of Gloucester and the eastern seaboard.

Old and new, large and small, a variety of schooners will visit Gloucester Harbor throughout the weekend, delighting all who visit. Gloucester's beautiful harbor, acclaimed by explorer Samuel de Champlain as "Le Beauport" is the backdrop for a unique mix of modern day and traditional vessels from the age of sail.

A spectacular highlight of the Gloucester Schooner Festival is the Parade of Sail on Sunday morning as participating schooners make their way through the harbor and past the breakwater, to the Mayor's Race starting area off Eastern Point., <https://gloucesterschoonerfestival.net/festival-schedule/>, Maritime Gloucester, 23 Harbor Loop, Gloucester 978-281-0470, <http://maritimegloucester.org>

Road Closures

MassDOT has announced that it has rescheduled the traffic management measures for Route 44 & Route 24. The new bridge deck placement will now take place from 7:00 PM on Tues. 9/3, to 5 a.m. on Wed., 9/4

Muster Day

On Saturday, Aug. 31, welcome the militia as they march into town at Old Sturbridge Village (OSV). From 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., OSV will host a day of military celebration, muskets, martial music and more.

In the early 19th-century, farmers and craftsmen were required by law to serve in local militia units — the forerunner of today's National Guard. Often, the various militia companies of several towns would come together for a regimental muster, a grand display that brought the townspeople out to cheer on the companies as they marched by in dashing uniform.

On Muster Day at Old Sturbridge Village, visitors are welcome to view and take part in the spectacle firsthand. Watch as the militia demonstrate the use of cannons and muskets and face off with rival militia companies in the field during mock or "sham fights." Children can join the company, marching with the militia, following officer instructions and learning early 19th-century drills. The day will also feature a short history of the "striped pig," a term familiar to musters of the day, used to skirt liquor laws of the early 19th-century.

Muster Day is included with Standard Daytime Admission, a season pass, or membership to Old Sturbridge Village. Visit: <https://www.osv.org/event/muster-day-august/>. Tickets are available online for $2.50 less than admission at the door. Purchase by visiting: <https://www.osv.org/visit/purchase-one-day-tickets-online/>.

OLOA statue gets all spruced up for the big feast

By Beth David
Editor

Members of Our Lady of Angels Catholic Association have been busy behind the scenes cutting cacoila, sprucing up the feast grounds, and otherwise getting ready for the "Biggest Little Feast" this weekend, the 89th annual.

This year the base of the big statue of Our Lady of Angels got replaced with a brand new, aluminum-frame base that uses different poles for a new experience for the members who carry the statue in the procession.

The statue weighs about 700 pounds. The old base weighed 176 pounds, the new one weighs 266 pounds, a 90 pound increase. The new poles, made from Douglas Fir, are 14 feet long and weigh in at a combined 75 pounds. The old system used four poles, with two people carrying in the front and two in the back holding each pole. Two other people also carried by standing in the middle and holding up the statue, for a total of six people carrying.

The new system has two poles that go all the way through the base, front to back. The extra long poles allow for two people each in front and in back for a total of eight people carrying, with no one in the middle.

Three teams of eight will take turns walking the statue up and down Main Street during the procession on Monday.

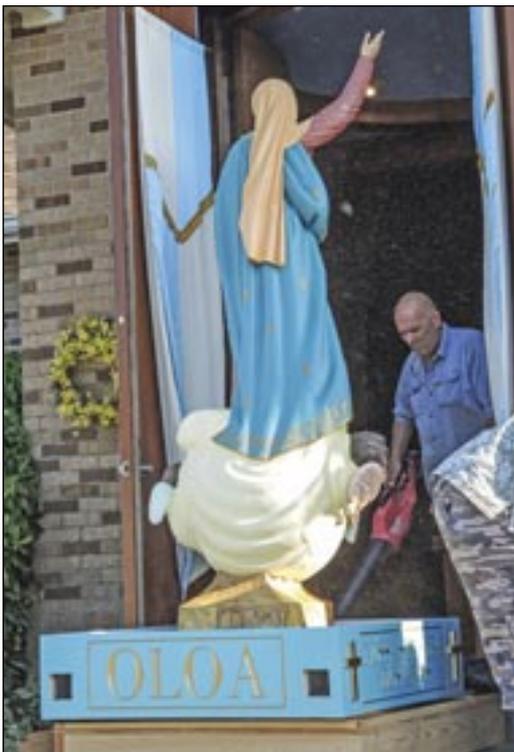

The old base was the original and was 89 years old.

Chris Costa was in charge of the carpentry part of the base, with help from other members to paint it and get it ready.

The statue was also restored and repainted, a process that took four months.

Fairhaven Lumber donated a crane and operator to hoist up the statue and lower it into the new frame on Monday afternoon, 8/26/19.

The OLOA feast is this weekend (see page 3 for details). The feast grounds have been sprayed for mosquitoes. According to the OLOA Facebook page, the county is spraying twice, the association will spray the grounds, and insect repellent with DEET will be available.

Fire muster lets firefighters strut their stuff

Two teams from Dartmouth, and one each from Mattapoisett and Westport faced off at the 10th annual Fire Muster hosted by Fairhaven at Livesey Park on Sunday, 8/25/19. The day started with a wet parade along the streets of Fairhaven, with firefighters spraying the crowd with water, and the crowd firing back. On the muster grounds, the four teams competed in two wet hose events, one dry hose event and a mystery event: axe throwing. Overall winner of the day was Dartmouth District 1, with a total time of 5 minutes, one second. Dartmouth District 2.5 came in second with a time of 5:33; and Mattapoisett took third with a time of 6:12. Camden DeMedeiros, 18, received the sportsmanship award, although it was unclear why he needed to show exemplary sportsmanship. Awards were also given for first to third place in individual events. Every team won at least one event. Other activities included bounce houses, face painting, music, food and apparel for sale. The food booth ran out of hot dogs and burgers, so it was definitely a success. Jean Jones of Mattapoisett won the 50-50 raffle of $110. For more information find the Fairhaven Firefighters Muster on Facebook or email fairhavefiremuster@yahoo.com. Acushnet says good bye to Town Administrator

By Pattie Pacella

Neighb News Correspondent

The 8/27/19, Acushnet Selectboard meeting was the last one for Town Administrator Brian Noble. Julie Hebert, who is the town's Finance Director/Accountant, also attended, her first meeting as Interim TA.

The Selectboard met with Department of Public Works Director, Dan Menard about upcoming streets that would be paved. Chairperson Roger Cabral said he was concerned why Mr. Menard was taking streets off of the Pavement Management Plan from year 2022, four years out, to pave now instead of going in the order that the PMP recommended.

Mr. Cabral stated that the town paid $25,000 for the Pavement Management Plan by an independent company to put together a five year plan of streets that needed maintaining or repaving. He said it was adopted by the Selectboard in 2017 and he felt it should be used as a tool according to year and monies that the Town had for repaving.

Mr. Menard stated he was of the opinion that the document should be used as a tool or guideline for what streets needed to be repaved, but he was not of the opinion that it should be followed exactly as reported in the plan.

He stated that the first street on the list in the plan was his own and he did not think it was worse than any other in town.

"I don't need the townspeople to get pissed off because they see that my street is the first getting done," he said.

The Board continued to discuss the plan and the funds that the Town receives on a yearly basis.

Mr. Menard stated that the Town receives approximately $360,000 in Chapter 91 funds for street paving and maintenance yearly, and that the plan overestimates that cost.

"I am of the opinion that the we could deviate from the plan, and use it as a guide. I'm recommending streets that I feel are in more desperate need of paving and maintenance this year," said Mr. Menard.

Selectboard member Kevin Gaspar agreed with Mr. Menard and stated that he thought the PMP was very disturbing. He said he believed the "plan was junk."

Mr. Noble said that the plan was not junk, but he believed there has to be a balance between what streets get done that are perhaps overutilized daily by vehicles and then perhaps add a street that is in worse condition to the list as well. He said it is better to use the money to keep good roads maintained than to just apply it to 'junk' roads. He said that the PMP gives the board the best plan for the roads traveled the most.

Mr. Gaspar stated that he thinks the plan needs to be manipulated into what streets need to be done based on water and sewer needs as well as monies that are available. He said he was unsure where the plan got their figures from.

Selectboard member, David Desroches stated that he felt the PMP was a plan and absolutely could be used as a guideline to what streets are worse than others, but did not need to be followed exactly to the letter of how the plan was written. He said he believed that they should be looking at roads that are in disrepair and begin with those streets.

After much discussion, the Selectboard approved the five streets that Mr. Menard recommended. Those streets are Hathaway Street, Conduit, Homestead, Myrtle and Wilbur.

In other business, the Selectboard announced their individual recommendations for a nine person screening committee for the new Town Administrator position.

Mr. Cabral recommended, John Roy, a schoolteacher; Jennifer Downing, a representative from the School Committee, and Robert St. Jean of the Finance Committee.

Mr. Gaspar recommended Tom DaCosta, a well known resident and dedicated resident of Acushnet, who was instrumental in creating the Veterans Memorial Park.

Mr. Gaspar also recommended John Golden, a long time business owner and Ms. Labonte, the Town Clerk.

Mr. Desroches's three recommendations were Heather Sylvia, the Director of the Acushnet Council on Aging; John Hancroft, who sits on the Finance Committee; and Les Dakin, a former Acushnet Selectboard member. The Selectboard voted for the nine individuals to be on the screening committee.

The Selectboard also agreed to pay six thousand dollars to Kevin Paicos for his role in assisting the screening Committee with applications and resumes for the Town Administrator position as well as to be an assistant to Ms. Hebert, should she need help as the interim TTA.

Mr. Gaspar said he wanted to make it clear that Mr. Paicos should not be whittling down the candidates, and that should be in the hands of the screening committee.

Mr. Noble stated that the contract for Mr. Paicos clearly states that "ALL" resumes were to go to the screening committee directly.

In other business, the Selectboard adopted the Remote Participation Policy for the town as an option for all boards and committees, but noted that each Board and Committee would have to adopt it for themselves if they so choose.

Finally, Mr. Cabral thanked Brian

Noble for being there at his last Acushnet Selectboard meeting. Mr. Cabral stated he was a pleasure to work with and wished him much success as he moved forward.

"You don't have to answer your phone if I call, but I hope you will if Ms. Hebert calls you," Mr. Cabral said with a chuckle.

Group from the FHS class of '61 still having fun together

By Beth David
Editor

Long time friends from the Fairhaven High School class of 1961 are still hanging out and having fun. The women try to get together every few months.

"We always gather Homecoming

Weekend, but we also try to get together every few months, sometimes eating out, but mostly gathering at Carolyn Beaulieu's house for pizza and WINE!" wrote Betty Jane Clark to the Neighb News. "She is our glue and keeps us together! She lives in Hampton, NH, but has kept her mother's house in Fairhaven. When she calls, we ARE THERE!"

This month, on Friday, 8/23, the gang got together at the Seaport Inn in Fairhaven in the outdoor seating area, "enjoying or silly selves and the beautiful boats and sunset," said Ms. Clark.

Acushnet's Pop Casey's not reopening due to owner's illness

By Beth David
Editor

Pop Casey's will not re-open after vacation, according to a Facebook post by Lynn Baker. The Acushnet staple, located on South Main Street, has been open for more than 75 years. Ms. Baker wrote that it was the most difficult decision she has ever had to make.

She said she has been battling cancer for two years and it has metastasized. She is continuing to fight the disease with an alternative treatment called "Gerson Therapy" that is "extremely regimented and time-consuming."

"My most recent scan on August

1st showed very positive and encouraging results," wrote Ms. Baker. "The cancer has stopped spreading and numerous tumors are shrinking!! I am determined to beat this horrible disease, but it is going to be a long road ahead."

"I would like to thank everyone of you personally for the positive thoughts, support and prayers during the difficult time," reads the Facebook post. "We plan on taking a few months to make some many needed changes and hope to be back serving you all soon. Your understanding during this temporary challenge is much appreciated by myself and my entire family."

As of press time, there were more than 500 comments on the Facebook post and it had been shared more than 200 times. Many of the comments recalled with fondness going to the restaurant as children, then adults.

The little restaurant is beloved for its homey atmosphere, kid friendly dishes and American favorites.

Robin Lowe wrote: "I was so sad to see this that was somewhere we went every week as kids best place around you could get a meal and play the [juke] box for a couple bucks back then."

From our readers

Don't destroy the look and feel of Hedge Street

As I read the article in the 8/22 Fairhaven Neighborhood News which reported on the Selectboard Meeting of 8/1,9 my interest was piqued when I read about the complaints registered by residents of Hedge Street, because they are reminiscent of mine from when a Community Development Block Grant destroyed my little corner of the world.

I live on Francis Street at the corner of Plymouth Avenue. During the so-called CDBG "improvements" to my once quaint, country street several tall shade shade trees were removed. Most of those trees were replaced with ugly ornamental trees and also four "sticks" that were supposed to be red maple trees. The maples are now dead or on death's door.

Our cobblestone curbs were removed and replaced with concrete curbs, even though I had been assured at a face-to-face meeting at the office of Mr. Roth, the previous Director of Planning and Economic Development, that we would get granite. At the time I considered it a compromise, a mistake I'll never make again.

We now have harsh white lines and bright yellow corners at what I call "crosswalks to nowhere" because they are simply not necessary in our tiny neighborhoods. When I objected to the look of the corners Mr. Roth's response was "you're lucky I didn't put stop signs at every corner."

As if destroying several blocks of Francis Street on the east side of my property wasn't enough, attention then turned to Plymouth Avenue along the south side of my property. Because I could not tolerate the look of Francis Street I rallied my neighbors to prevent further "improvements" which would have led to the removal of seven shade trees on the two blocks of Plymouth Avenue, as well as the addition of more concrete curbs and jarring "crosswalks to nowhere."

My neighbors and I attended a hearing regarding the impending CDBG project and brought a petition signed by those who could not attend to voice our opposition to the project. Collectively, we prevailed!

A couple of years ago I stood with the neighbors on Green Street who were threatened by the same destruction to be done with another CDBG and fortunately they were able to spare the trees and the feel of their neighborhood. Can you imagine Ginko Bilobas lining the east side of Unitarian Church? I can and it's not a pretty image!

Mr. Carter of GCG Associates encouraged our new Director of Planning and Economic Development, Paul Foley, to meet with neighbors again to discuss the ongoing plans for Hedge Street. As a tax paying citizen I would like to attend that meeting. If any of the neighbors care to call/text/email with the location, time and date (my contact info is at the bottom) I will be there.

There is a way to make necessary improvements to our neighborhoods without destroying the feel, but residents must be told openly and honestly what the plan is in order to protect their corner of the world.

Don't compromise or accept anyone's word as gospel when it comes to preventing your neighborhood from looking like mine. I learned the hard way that, as my beloved grandfather used to tell me, "DeeDee, yah cain't trust the bastahds."

Sen. Warren's lies

The recent rant by Elizabeth Warren concerning the shooting death of Micheal Brown by officer Wilson is a blatant lie where she claims he was murdered. I challenge anyone to Google Micheal Brown's shooting and read the reports yourself. The Department of Justice concluded he acted in self defense. There is ample evidence to support office Wilson's claim he was acting in self defense. He was responding to a report of a robbery. Officef Wilson stopped him while in his patrol car and spoke to him through his partially rolled down window. Brown's response was to try get into his patrol car and take his weapon from him. Brown was shot while charging for him.*

These facts don't matter to Elizabeth Warren. She is a secular progressive liberal whose only concern is power and control and personal gratification, in other words a narcissist. She believes in a godless narcissistic society and all authority and control is by the government. The government can provide for all your needs. the individual has no rights, he or she must be subject to the state.

This is the illusion and deception being put forth by her and rest of the presidential candidates of democratic party, in other words the government can provide for all your needs: free health care, free tuition, you name it. Take away individual responsibility, the bill of rights, the free market, where if you want to succeed you have to compete.

She lied and scammed her way through college got her professorship by claiming she had Indian ancestry. DNA testing proved she had no Indian blood. She is no different from Hillary Clinton who lied about the attack in Libya where ambassador Stevens and two navy seals were killed. She said it was in response to a video, when in reality it was a well planned coordinated attack with rocket propelled grenades and mortars. The attack lasted for 13 hours. She didn't as much as send a plane to help them. She never met with the mothers of the two navy seals who died defending ambassador Stevens like she promised.

This has proven to be a false accusation, by an exhaustive investigative report by the Boston Globe: (<https://www.bostonglobe.com/news/nation/2018/09/01/did-claiming-native-american-heritage-actually-help-elizabeth-warren-get-a-head-but-complicated/wUZZcrKKEOUv5Spnb7I00K/story.html>)*

DNA testing did show a tribal ancestor 10 generations back. It is the attribution of genetics for tribal membership that has caused backlash among Native Americans, not the genetic claim itself (<https://www.latimes.com/politics/story/2019-08-19/elizabeth-warren-native-american-dna-apology>)*

48 Green Street | Fairhaven Center | $299,000

Historic Greek Revival located on Green Street equidistant from the Center of Fairhaven and Fort Phoenix beach. This home has so much potential and retains much of its original detail and character. The first floor layout includes entrance hall with curved staircase to second floor, front parlor, office, laundry room, full bathroom, second parlor with fireplace, kitchen and large dining room. Additionally there is a covered and screened rear porch overlooking very large back yard. The second floor features three bedrooms with ample closet space, a fireplace and what used to be the old washroom complete with dry sink. Outside the home is a paved driveway leading to a two-car garage with expansion space above. While completely livable as is, this home will need cosmetic updates, it is rare to find such an original example of early architecture in this part of the Center.
