First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Judge Murray Gurfein, Pentagon Papers case, June 17, 1971:
"The security of the Nation is not at the ramparts alone. Security also lies in the value of our free institutions. A cantankerous press, an obstinate press, a ubiquitous press must be suffered by those in authority in order to preserve the even greater values of freedom of expression and the right of the people to know."

VETERANS DAY NEXT WEEK

The Acushnet Veterans Parade is Saturday, 11/7 (see page 7); and Fairhaven's parade is on Veterans Day, Wednesday, 11/11 (see page 5)

Please line the route, go to the end, show support for veterans. We are in a war, service members have died. We need to show support for our military.

And, besides, parades are fun.

And...it's probably going to rain a little for the Acushnet parade. That's so expected lately, right? You get to show support for the military and show how tough you are, too.

Now, we had an election this week (see page 3 for local/state results). Dare I say...

HOLY F'G MOLY! Texas flipped. Only the Big Buffoon could do that, truly. What a monumental f'up you have to be to flip Texas and South Carolina in one night. Even Mississippi is a tossup at press time. Florida, however, is hopeless.

A little closer to home...

Maine: Susan Collins and her phony "concern," GONE.

NH: May we never have to hear the name "Sununu" again.

Meanwhile, here at home...

We had three Fairhaven people on the ballot and one Acushnet person.

Fairhaven's Bob McConnell did not succeed in unseating long time Senator, Mark Montigny.

For state representative, in the 10th Bristol district, Mark Sylvia fended off a challenge from Brendallee Smith, both of Fairhaven.

For state representative in the 8th Bristol, Acushnet resident Jesse St. Gelais is giving incumbent Steve Ouellette a run for his money. I'm writing this in anticipation of being able to upload as soon as I get the result. But...I may have to upload before we actually know. That's how close it is. Yup. Time is up and that race has not been called because only 19% of the results were in.

See page 3 for all the races and results of the ballot questions.

Okay, okay...I admit. A little light on other news this week. I admit, I got caught up in election stuff and something had to give. Alas....enjoy the fluff stuff this week, okay?

There's still lots of good stuff in here, though. Thumb through to find it all, and while you do that, be sure to notice who our advertisers are so you can tell them you saw their ads in the Neighb News.

Until next week... see ya,

Glory to Ukraine!

CORRECTIONS/CLARIFICATIONS

In our story on the Millicent Library in last week's issue, we made an error on how many days the library was closed last summer due to heat. It was closed on 7 days.

We apologize for any confusion our error may have caused.

I-195 Route 18 South ramp to close until 2029

MassDOT is holding a public information meeting on the I-195/ Route 18 project as the project shifts to phases 3 and 4, Thurs., 11/5, 6 p.m., virual meeting, visit: https://www.mass.gov/orgs/highway-division/events

The purpose of this meeting is to provide the public with the opportunity to become fully acquainted with the project's upcoming shifts to phases 3 and 4. All views and comments submitted in response to the meeting will be reviewed and considered to the maximum extent possible.

The big news is that beginning in Dec. 2026, the ramp from I-195 east to Route 18 South (Exit 26) to get to downtown Ne Bedford will be closed through the spring of 2029. During the closure, a signed detour will be in place.

The closure will allow traffic to shift over to the new I-195 westbound bridge. The existing I-195 eastbound bridge will be demolished, and then construction of the new bridge will begin.

Project inquiries may also be emailed to i195route18newbedford@dot.state.ma.us

Please submit any written statements regarding the proposed undertaking to: Carrie A. Lavallee, P.E., Chief Engineer, MassDOT, 10 Park Plaza, Boston, MA 02116, Attention: Major Projects, PROJECT FILE NO. 606527

SC Community Foundation scholarship applications

Press Release

The SouthCoast Community Foundation (SCCF) is accepting applications for its 2027 scholarship program, with more than 65 scholarships totaling over $900,000 available to students in Southeastern Mass. who are pursuing higher education and career training. Applications are open through January 11, 2027.

Thanks to the generosity of local donors, SCCF awarded more than $900,000 in scholarships to over 120 students in 2026. The program focuses on expanding access to higher education, with particular attention to first- and second-generation college students and students already enrolled in college. Since its inception in 1995, the Foundation has distributed over $68 million in grants and $6.2 million in scholarships.

Scholarships support a range of educational paths, including two- and four-year degrees, vocational and technical education, certificate programs, and workforce training. Graduating high school seniors, technical certificate/trade school students, and current college students are encouraged to explore available opportunities. Eligibility varies by scholarship.

The Foundation serves 41 cities and towns across southeastern Massachusetts, including Attleboro, Bridgewater, Brockton, Dartmouth, Fairhaven, Fall River, New Bedford, Plymouth, Somerset, Swansea, Taunton, Wareham, and Westport. Students and families can visit southcoastcf.org for the full list of communities served and review individual scholarship descriptions at southcoastcf.org/2027scholarships for eligibility requirements.

Most scholarships are available through SCCF's Universal Application, which matches applicants with scholarships for which they may be eligible. This year, the Foundation has refined the application to tailor questions to different types of applicants, making the process more relevant and easier to navigate for students with varied educational and life experiences. Some scholarships require separate applications.

2 cup chicken broth
1 cupup cream
1 tbsp butter
1 small onion, chopped
1 bay leaf
1/2 tsp thyme

Dear Frankie

The Adoption

Dear Frankie,

I am an eight-week-old puppy. Yesterday, my mom told me I was about to be adopted by a human couple without children.

I can't bear the thought of being without her and my littermates. She said we have no choice.

I'm terrified and have no idea what to expect.

Thanks, Buster

Dear Buster,

Being adopted by a couple without children is like winning the canine lottery. This couple thinks they will be your parents, and that's a real bonus for you. Parenting, you see, is the most competitive sport in America. So, they need you to make them look good.

The first thing they will teach you is to sit. Whatever you do, don't sit unless they give you a cookie. When you learn how to sit, and they ask you to sit, pretend you don't understand and see if they will give you two cookies.

It worked for me because my mom's single, and she'll do anything to make herself look good as a parent.

Best, Frankie

Haunted town hall frightens and entertains

By Beth David
Editor

Fairhaven's Town Hall was transformed into one big Halloween party, complete with free candy, costumes, contests, activities, and all-around just fooling-around fun.

Outside the street was closed to traffic for people to gather and watch dperformances by the dancers of Supreme Perfection Studio; food trucks; a petting zoo and more.

Inside, children of all ages could visit the Arts & Crafts room to make Crystal Balls out of paper, Haunted Houses, Brew a Potion, Boo-tiful bracelets, coloring, Trick or Triva, and watch "Halloweentown" on TV.

Upstairs, they could join a variety of activities, including a Trick or Trivia contest, costume contest, photo ops, and trick or treating at tables sponsored by Fairhaven nonprofits and businesses, turning the auditorium into what could be describe as "controlled chaos."

Everything was free.

The ninth annual event is sponsord by Fairhaven TV, the town's cable access department.

[Ayn Rand]

[Original Sin] begins by damning man as evil, then demands that he practice a good which it defines as impossible for him to practice. It demands, as his first proof of virtue, that he accept his own depravity without proof. It demands that he start, not with a standard of value, but with a standard of evil, which is himself, by means of which he is then to define the good: the good is that which he is not.

Fairhaven Housing Authority
INVITATION TO BID

The Fairhaven Housing Authority is seeking proposals from qualified developers for the development of approximately 50 units of affordable senior rental housing at a range of incomes on surplus land it owns adjacent to an existing public housing site, Oxford Terrace. The most advantageous proposal, from a responsive and responsible proposer, considering all evaluation criteria set forth in the RFP, will be selected.

The Authority intends to enter into a Land Development Agreement and a 99-year Ground Lease with the selected developer, with affordability restrictions. The Authority has made a preliminary determination that the value of the site exceeds $35,000, making the award of this contract subject to Uniform Procurement Act, M.G.L c. 30B. A copy of the RFP can be obtained via request to Janet Falone, Executive Director of the Fairhaven Housing Authority, at janet@fairhavenhousing.org .

Parks Survey

The Town of Fairhaven has been working with SRPEDD and BETA Group to assess the community's existing parks and recreation areas. We are looking for your input to help shape the future of these important community spaces.

The survey begins with a few general demographic questions, followed by three open-ended questions for each park or recreation area:

- What do you like about the park?
- What improvements would you like to see at the park?
- Is there anything else you would like us to know about the Park?

You can provide as much or as little feedback as you would like.

Where to, My Love?

I never imagined how visiting National Parks in the United States would become a mission field and a major focus of my later life's purpose. It started several years ago when I went along with my wife's dream of acting out what Dinah Shore used to sing in a catchy commercial: "See the USA in a Chevrolet." Initially, I tolerated Cynthia's passion to visit interesting places in our nation. Recruiting me as a travel partner was at best becoming a form of a tag-along. Well, after visiting 54 of our country's 64 National Parks and witnessing her excellent lead and unwavering commitment, I finally woke up to something altogether different. My attitude and perspective have dramatically changed… Here is why…

My wife's efforts and skill in coordinating our special trips has resulted in a virtual feast of sights, from the Grand Canyon, the Everglades, Carlsbad Caverns, Yellowstone, and Yosemite to many equally impressive wonders. There's no question every experience has been both humbling and greatly appreciated.

So here's the rub… I began to realize that it's one thing to stand in awe of the park, it's quite another to fully acknowledge the genius of the One who created these magnificent spaces. With kudos going out to the naturalists who generated the interest and persevered in the process of establishing and protecting these sensational sites, I've awakened to what I believe is a much deeper form of praise. It is God who deserves to be celebrated and recognized for His playground innovations — designed especially for us to enjoy and create a heightened sense of marvel that leaves no question of His astounding glory.

This has ignited a fresh perspective for every adventure to follow. I like to think of it as our National Park Mission Trips. Where I once was ho-hum and a mere tag-along conditioned to rely only on my five senses, I now (with Holy Spirit oversight) will operate in a ready, willing, and able partnership, complete with open eyes of gratefulness and faith. Of course, our senses will still be in play, but Cynthia and I will also bring hearts that are ready to share the greatest news of all.

So, friends, our collective motive in visiting the remaining National Parks has taken a lively turn. I'm no longer ho-hum or a mere tag-along. From here on out, we'll set off as disciples of Jesus Christ, going onto the highways and byways as a matter of obedience — to appreciate all that God has done and to introduce what He has for those He'll be sending our way. With this perspective lighting the path, I look to my awesome wife and ask, "Where to, my love?"

Steven J. Bouley, Fairhaven

Can't Stop Laughing...

I can't stop laughing at John Pond's latest letter in this newspaper (10/22/6 issue).

His latest diatribe is about how the Democratic party has been taken over by Marxists, communists, and socialists. Really? His King is the guy offering $5,000 payments if you vote for Republicans. That is socialism in its very definition. His King has seen to it that the US government now has equity stakes in more than 30 private companies. That is communism. His King's two biggest buddies and friends are Putin and Kim Jong Un, two communist leaders of two of the most reprehensible countries in the world, in terms of government leadership.

Then Mr. Pond praises and thanks God for his King and goes on to say that we have forgotten about 911 and that the planes were hijacked by Islamic extremists. Yes. Like guys from Qatar. The same place where their King gave John's King a free airplane worth billions, as a gift, "with no strings attached" Ha…Ha…Ha…

I mean these people are a treat. Beyond regurgitating the garbage, they see on Fox News do they ever think for themselves? The accusations and claims Mr. Pond made point directly at King Trump and yet Republican voters turn themselves into a pretzel to defend him. Years from now there will be great studies done about how a con man convinced 78m people that he cared about them when in fact he was enriching himself (doubled net worth in last 2 years) and doing everything that his supporters claimed about those they do not like. Insanity!

Adam Abelha, Fairhaven

Krasnov or Dummkopf?

For several years undocumented allegations have been made that Donald Trump is a Russian asset or spy having visited Russia for financial dealings many years ago. These allegations surface from time to time but have never been proven nor taken seriously by the Justice Department nor any congressional committees .

Recently, as we are nearing the midterm elections, a formerly employed Russian bureaucrat has claimed to have documentation to corroborate Trump's recruitment by Russia under the name of Krasnov. Once again the evidence is not sufficient and suspiciously politically motivated.

However, what is undeniably true is that Donald Trump is a dummkopf who has consistently been played and made a fool of by Putin. Trump's most recent relaxation of trade restrictions, and agreement to purchase diesel oil from Russia, is just another example of how enamored he is of Putin and unwilling to commit to Ukraine's defense in this war started by Putin. There is no necessity to document this characterization as Trump has provided all the verbal and written executive orders to make this uncontested.

By virtue of befriending and assisting Putin the war has been prolonged with all the human and financial devastation, and also has alienated our NATO allies from an historically successful relationship.

If there is a positive aspect gained from Trump's close friendship with Putin it is only how it may have been to his own financial advantage. But from the prospective of national security, financial stability and standing in the world, Trump's actions are those of a monumental fool.

Business Interests vs..

Business interests are not the same as resident interests and sometimes they are quite at odds with each other.

[Beth David, FNN editorial,10.25.26]

To claim that a man's interests are sacrificed whenever a desire of his is frustrated—is to hold a subjectivist view of man's values and interests. Which means: to believe that it is proper, moral and possible for man to achieve his goals, regardless of whether they contradict the facts of
